Consultant Certification & Equipment TRAINING

Making a significant change in any area of life requires a three step process: acquiring knowledge, making a decision, and taking action. As you read on, I hope you will be inspired to take the next steps to enhancing your practice and care giving skills.

This is an unprecedented opportunity to learn from 2012 Massage Hall of Fame Inductee, Mark Lamm, over a six day period. This program offers the massage, sports and physical therapists, rolfers and structural integrators a consultant certification and proprietary equipment that sets them apart in the eyes of clients, peers and referral sources. The time that you will spend with Mark will be intensive, interactive and experiential so not only will you become fluent in the “language” of the body; but, by “seeing”, “doing” and “receiving” you will also see results fast!

As a Certified BioSync Consultant

you will learn dramatically effective massage and bodywork concepts — including the BioSync® whole body protocol using the specifically designed BioSync therapeutic equipment — which is a revolutionary new paradigm in massage and bodywork.

This certification will enrich your private and professional practice with tools and techniques that will deeply change and improve the lives of your clients. Indeed, Anthony Robbins says “There are 3 people who transformed my life: One is Mark Lamm. In the 30 plus years that I’ve worked in the field of peak performance, I’ve had the privilege of working with many master teachers. In the area of creating immediate and dramatic improvements in one’s physical body, there are none who can rival the impact of Mark Lamm’s work.

Consultant CERTIFICATION

BioSync's whole body approach combines Eastern healing methods and Western modern medical knowledge. In keeping with this philosophy, the BioSync consultant is taught to somatically address the effects of stored physical and emotional traumas. The focus is on self awareness, stress reduction, pain relief and rehabilitation using the transformational potential of therapeutic touch.

The BioSync consultant is also trained to carefully attend to the client's physiology and the sound of their voice as well as the qualities of their breathing. There is a formal protocol so that the consultant works the entire body in a systematic pattern in each full session. However, "improvisation" of body positions, leverages, moves, directions, etc. is also foundational to a BioSync consultant's abilities, enabling them to address specific challenges that are uniquely different with each client.

ONLY YOU CAN HEAL! Any person or course of action is simply facilitating your internal process. BioSync is an important and necessary health care option and an extraordinary alternative to drugs, surgery, rehab and living with pain. This work has the superb ability to "do no harm" while being profoundly effective.

What would it be like to embrace freedom and well being when a painful injury, traumatic life event or self limiting pattern is resolved? BioSync provides an important choice and opportunity for a more vibrant and balanced way of living and experiencing a pain free life!

The intuitive and energetic aspects of BioSync, however, are absolutely integral to its practice. This is why BioSync is so unusual. It is a highly technical, structural work which requires a thorough knowledge of anatomy. However, the effectiveness of this work is totally dependent on the strength of the consultant's intuition, and on the energetic connection between client and consultant. These finely tuned abilities are taught and carefully nurtured by Mark Lamm in his Consultant Certification.

Mark gained his expertise through the teachings of various healers, shamans and Qi Gong masters as well as wisdom and yogic knowledge through his mentorship with Yogi Bhaijan. Yogiji taught Mark to be fearless when working on the body albeit with great sensitivity and awareness. He taught through many demonstrations how incredibly resilient the body is and wants to be. The healing techniques that Yogi Bhaijan shared with Mark is the reason for and the meaning behind what has become Mark's life work and passion – BioSync!
